To You, Who I Cherish and Love

JANUARY 3RD, 2025

1. Dear Trisha

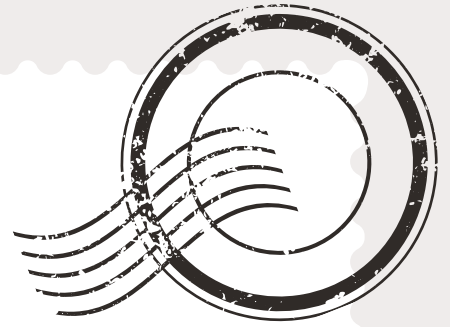

Dear Trisha, Who I Cherish and Love,
It's been a year since we were technically close. I still remember that meeting with Cliff and Nicole we had to celebrate your birthday. What a happy day it was. Well, yes, all the hype about a brand new University, a brand new life, has faded, but I refuse to succumb to that expectation. For me, Trisha, the person I love the most, is still the same person, whether now or last year. So, I hope the short video that we, all your friends, made for you will create a mark to remember and cherish this day again in the future! I hope that this video creates a smile on you, to remind you just how many people genuinely love for you, care for you, and are there for you. Genuinely, I did not expect a lot of them to take the initiative themselves and record without me needing to remind them about this video. This goes to show that many people, from Hall 8, Hall 9, from ICN, from GTD, from ISCF, from manapun, they can tell that you are a sweetheart and a kind person.

Every time I write a message to you, I always reiterate what I love about you, but aku ga pernah bosen buat ngulangin lagi. Trisha is the most caring person I have ever met in my life. From the day I met you, until more than a year later, that character persists. The way you treat people, the way you think about others' feelings, the way you convey your message well, the way you make sure everyone is alright. It's unique to Trisha, it's only findable di seorang Trisha.

1. Dear Trisha

Trisha is also a very hard-working person. Semua diembat yo yo iki arek. Ga sumpek ta km. But it's okay, in FACT, it's amazing to find a girl that is as ambitious as you are right now. Ngalah ngalahin cowonya BOOOO. Jujur respect banget with you right now. With all the juggling, CCA, sekolah, pacar yang cerewet, temen, you can handle all of them well (meski stress dikit heheh gapapa). I believe with all of this, you will be changed as a person, to be a better person overall that will always thrive to push her limits. Let's become a power couple of 2025 AWW KEBELET EEKKKKKKKKKK!

And of course, her beauty. Mau diliat dari kiri kanan atas bawah N, NE, E, SE, S, SW, W, NW, manapun, Trisha is always beautiful. Looking at you always make me doki doki. Bodo amat kata orang, I vote for Trisha Miss Singapore, engga de Miss WORLD. Your eyes yang sharp, your chubby cute face, your sexy lips, your wavy hair. I love everything about you. Thank you for being born this beautiful with exceptional character and exceptional manners. I said it before, you are perfect in your imperfection. Tapi lama kelamaan, I would say you are perfect just as it is! Well suree, jan puas sampe sini dulu, but I genuinely want to appreciate your beauty, and you as a whole person.

PR BUAT TAHUN DEPAN adalah gereja. Yes, we should strive for greatness, reach our goals, and become a better person. But none of it matters without the presence of God, and I know we both understand that concept very well. So no excuse anymore. We have to go to Church, how difficult it is, how impossible it is, we will make it easy, we will make it possible to go to Church and look for His presence in our life. I believe our closeness to God will bring to not only you and me individually, not only our relationship but also to everything around us as a whole. LET'S DO THIS BEB

11. Your History

Dear Trisha, Who I Cherish and Love,
2024 was quite a ride don't you think? Many challenges, many uncertainties, many ups and downs. From the fear of not being able to join ICN anymore, the fear of losing a friend, the fear of not being close to the "used to close" one, the fear of internship, the fear of academics, and many more. Well, you know what, now we, no, YOU, can say FUCK ALL THOSE FEAR. At the end of the day, you went through all of that with good results. Yes, some of those fears are still passed to the following year, but but but, let's face them. You don't need to do it yourself, you have your friends, and parents to help you out. Then next year you can say it again, FUCK THOSE FEAR, with a sign of relief in your heart.

But let's not just talk about the bad sides should we? A lot of memories have been made yay! What a nice day it is, to know that exactly today last year, you are still an 18-year-old Trisha wondering about the world of NTU with a lot of curiosity. Now stands a 19-year-old Trisha with a bit more knowledge, a bit more experience, a bit more wisdom, and just a bit more of 1 year memories. Shall I list them? Haha. Let's name a few! We had our quintuple dinner for your birthday celebration in January. Did you know that it is the first time I tried Wingstop and I instantly loved it? February is our first official date! Going to Brewerks, ClarkeQuay (we hate it now), and Bugis Photoshoot! Don't forget about that LDR CNY moment hihih. March you created the best Birthday I have ever experienced. April is the day of our Merlion date! Then comes our first day as an official partner in May. Well, I can go on and on, but definitely a lot of memories to be proud of Trisha!

11. Your History

If you are saying that Sem 2 has fewer memories. Now that we have passed those days, let's just say, I am not regretting anything about what we have done in Sem 2. Yes, lots of missed opportunities, but when we are feeling down, that's where we learn. Let's pick up on our mistakes and fix them, shall we? I know we can do it together! Just see those tears, those breakdowns, those regrets as lessons and I believe together we can bounce back next sem!

III. A Bright Future

Now look ahead! 2025 is here! You are 19 years older! I am thrilled for you and you should too. First of all, you are a year younger than other international students, second of all, you are 3 years younger than Singaporean female, final of all, you are 5 years younger than Singaporean male. If that is not an advantage, I don't know what is. You are young, very young to be exact. Imagine grinding towards something with years time advantage. So do not worry too much, with that work ethic, manners, and of course beauty, you will make it. You will reach your goals in 2025! You just need to stay focus, stay to your prioritizes, and pray to God! Aku ga minta banyak banyak kok beb dari km hehehe. Cuman waktu ketemu tiap harii, diet bareng, olahraga bareng, makan bareng, and lots of quality time hehehe. I hope, no, I BELIEVE you can cope well with everything because you are Trisha! Let's talk about your goals more when we have the time because I would love to know your vision for this year.

That said, do not be too tunnel vision with something sampe sampe km lupa your health yep. You've tasted what its like to be unwell during the academic period. Harus MC, gabisa kemana mana bebas, ngapa ngapain gaenak. I'm sure you don't want that to be repeated. So please seek help if you need it, tell me and your friends if there is anything that we can help you with. Jann too independent strong woman tapi tepar di jalan yaaa.

W. I LOVE YOU

With all that said, I just want to conclude everything by saying you are the most gorgeous person I've ever met in my life, whether physically, in manners, character, or spiritually. YOU ARE PERFECT JUST THE WAY YOU ARE. But none of this matters to me. I love you because you are Trisha. If you dare to sway away from the right track, I pull you right in. DIH. So, HAPPIEST 19th BIRTHDAY TO MY PRETTIEST CUTTIE SWEETHEART! I love you the most with all my heart and I miss you so much! Hopefully we can have a really really great time when we meet in a week! I am sorry if I hurt you before, if I spoke in a rude way, if I ever neglected your feeling, I am truly sorry and I never meant to do that. But for now, just enjoy, relax, and chillax (anjay kebelet) in Japan with your family. Have your greatest time with them in one of the best country in the world. Create a memorable events there, and I hope to see you soon! Love you again beb!
